

Keensight Capital recruits Stéphane Jamin as Director

Keensight Capital, one of the leading private equity managers dedicated to pan-European Growth Buyout<sup>1</sup> investments, reinforces its portfolio performance team with the recruitment of Stéphane Jamin as Director.

Stéphane benefits from 10 years of experience both in the industry and in strategic consulting. Alongside the investment team, he will support portfolio company managers in the fields of operational excellence, commercial strategy, organization, internationalization, and more broadly will help them create value through profitable growth.

Bio – Prior to joining Keensight Capital, Stéphane was a Manager at Kearney where he advised executive committees and led strategy and transformation projects for leading international players and medium-sized companies with a focus on healthcare, manufacturing, and consumer goods. He started his career in the industry at Saint-Gobain where he held several positions ranging from finance to operations, first in the Corporate Audit department and then as a plant production manager.

A French native, Stéphane is a graduate of Ecole Polytechnique and holds a Mechanical Engineering degree from McGill University.
